Stefan cel Mare University Symposium

The main goal of this activity was to spread the information related to transnational research results and to emphasize the implications for education and parents' training. The symposium comprised presentations of the national reports and the final report in a comparative approach.

This activity was addressed to researchers, teachers and other professionals involved in special education field. The results was communicated to the institutions in charge with special education.

The symposium was relevant both at national and international level. There was invited 100 persons from Romania and abroad (representatives of Moldova and Ukraine professional categories interested in the field) and also there was invited politicians involved in local and regional government institution who could become more aware regarding the specific needs of families with disabled children.

Every participant received a project map.
